

Free eBay Introduction

Want to become a millionaire from the contents of your attic, or just want to sell your unwanted presents? The DARC Technology Club welcomes you to join with us for an evening discovering all you need to know about eBay.

For new users, occasional buyers or the seasoned sellers, this evening has something for everyone. Lots of hints, tips and advice for buyers and sellers, packed into a couple of hours.

The evening will be hosted on Monday, 9th January 2006 at 7.30pm (Doors open at 7.10pm) in the St Alkmund's Church Hall in Duffield, DE56 4BA. Large free car park at church front.
Satellite Navigation co-ordinates (Lat 52°58'89"N - Long 1°28'91"W or SK 34804 43268)

The evening will cover many topics:

- Getting started on eBay and your first purchase
- Intelligent bidding
- Listing your first item and using PayPal
- The eBay and PayPal small print
- Avoiding Scams and Phishing
- Becoming a seasoned seller

Did you know, to be covered under the PayPal Sellers Protection, you need to ship items with online tracking. Don't risk losing out to unscrupulous bidders, get the information you need to know in one evening session, and it is all completely FREE (for this special evening only)!

Further information is available at:
<http://www.darc-comp.org.uk/>

Future Topics Include:

- Police (Helicopter Support)
- Remote Broadband Backups
- Video and PVR Technology
(Entrance fee for non members)

Directions:

- Approach Duffield along the A6 from Derby or Matlock.
- Turn at the junction by the Baptist Church, signposted Little Eaton.
- Turn right into Church Drive signposted 'Church' and park near the railway lines.
- The Hall is on the left.

